

February 02, 2026: On the Next Sign Into My Home Has Already Arrived

This is the type of nonstop messaging that is force fed into my life from inside of the Elon Musk and Donald Trump flight path into American history.

Now the next signs arrive for this image. I kid you not. This is what 'revs up' the engines at 3:50 a.m. around my home - in the middle of a block not traveled by anyone other than the people that live on it (and of course those losers that are paid by Elon Musk and Donald Trump to us).

This one is called: 286_CAPRICORN Boys and Girls in Gymnasium Jumpsuits

I am so very disgusted by these losers and their continuous presence in our life.

Truly, place yourself in my shoes for a year or three and tell me how you would be feeling about Donald Trump and Elon Musk right now.
